2020 – 2021 Teacher Mini-Grant Program

The American Sign Language Honor Society has a limited amount of funds to support projects relating to the study of American Sign Language. These funds are available to secondary and post-secondary chapters of the American Sign Language Honor Society. Depending on the number of applications received, the Honor Society may fund a single project or contribute to multiple projects. Disbursed funds may or may not match the original requested amount.

Please note: The maximum grant amount is $500.00

The purpose of the ASL Honor Society Teacher Mini-Grant Program is to make financial assistance available to Honor Society chapters who wish to undertake a project that enhances ASL studies. Appropriate uses for the ASL Honor Society Teacher Mini-Grant Program include, but are not limited to:

- Guest speaker fees
- ASL Festival / Deaf Awareness Weeks costs
- Hosting “Passport to a Deaf World”
- School-wide ASL entertainment or speaker
- ASL-curriculum, supplies, or equipment
- ASL-related field
