2021 National High School ASL Scholarship, Part A

Before submitting your scholarship application, first verify that your institution's membership with the ASL Honor Society is current. Do this by:

Step 1: Visit the Chapters page of the ASLHS website (www.aslhonorsociety.org/Chapters.html).

Step 2: Scroll down and find your state and institution name.

Step 3: If there is an instructor's name and check mark for your school, send in your scholarship application

Step 4: If there is no instructor name or check mark, your scholarship application will not be processed because your institution is not an active ASLHS member for 2020-2021. See step 6 for more information.

Step 5: If your institution does not appear on the list at all, your scholarship application will not be processed because your institution is not an active ASLHS member for 2020 - 2021. See step 6 for more information.

Step 6: If your school is not an active member of the ASL Honor Society, discuss your interest in applying for the ASL Scholarship with one of the ASL instructors on your campus. Note that unless your institution joins the ASLHS, your scholarship cannot be processed. ASLHS membership needs to be taken care of prior to submitting your ASL scholarship application.

Instructions: Please attach your essay as a separate document. You may print a copy and include it with your application, share video via google drive to aslhs-operations@asлта.org, or submit a digital copy on the same USB thumbnail drive used for your ASL essay. Save the digital file in a .doc, .txt, or .pdf file format.

Essay Guidelines:

- a. Minimum one page, single spaced; maximum two pages.
- b. Essay content should be original and written by you without any outside assistance.
- c. The essay will be judged for content, organization, and clarity.
- d. Give the essay a title.
- e. Make sure your name appears below the essay title.

Essay Topic:

ASL students who create signed music videos, such as the lyrics to a popular song, is a controversial issue within the ASL community. Some people consider signing music to be culturally inappropriate, whereas others find it an enjoyable pastime. In your essay, summarize the two different perspectives on this topic with specific points and examples, and focus on this question: What other, more deeper issues might be influencing perspectives on this controversial issue, or is it simply about hearing or not hearing music?

ASL Essay

Instructions: Please share video via google drive to aslhs-operations@asлта.org or attach your ASL essay on a USB thumbnail drive. Essays on DVD will not be accepted.
